

Emmanuel College Latest News 9 September 2025

Emmanuel's Marianist ethos is expressed in a safe and secure Catholic environment, based on compassion, respect, justice and responsibility which fosters the development of the learning and faith community. We shared breakfast and celebrated Mass together on Friday, to thank Fathers, Stepfathers, Grandfathers, Uncles and male mentors for the contributions they make to students lives and we thank Fr Timothy Kenney and Fr Paul Tru for delivering uplifting and heartwarming services at each College campus.

College community - celebrating our Student Ambassadors

Many of you who have attended Emmanuel College events, such as information mornings, open evenings, College tours and Year 6 orientation events, will have met our amazing Student Ambassadors. These students generously volunteer their time to welcome prospective families and showcase what they love about being part of the Emmanuel College community. By sharing their experiences, our Student Ambassadors provide an authentic insight into College life and the values that make our school special. Beyond supporting the College, being a Student Ambassador builds on personal values in developing leadership and public speaking skills and forming friendships with peers from different year levels. We are extremely proud of our Student Ambassadors and the enthusiasm, kindness and school spirit they bring to our College.

This week we share images from the recent Year 6 Fun and Games Nights that were held at each campus, student ambassadors and the Father's Day Mass.

60th Anniversary Reunion

We are excited to be turning 60 this year and welcome all former students and staff back to where it all began, St Paul's Campus, on Friday 10 October to celebrate our 60th anniversary together. With food trucks, a display of artefacts and memorabilia (from St Paul's and Notre Dame Campuses) this will be a great opportunity to reconnect with current and former staff members and school friends.
